SEMINAR SCHEDULE AND GENERAL INFO

The 2022 Seminar is mandatory for current judges who need to refresh their NCHA card and open to the new applicants, the seminar will be conducted by Mr. Andy Adams – development and education specialist of judges, monitor judge & judge (AAAA). Auditors will be allowed to join the seminar.

They must be current NCHA members, fill and sign recertification form and the ethic code and turn them to Ncha.

The new applicants must fill and sign the NCHA judge application form to be turned at NCHA, and they are required to take an open book test and a judging test on video. Applicants are required to take the written test as part of the application process. They won't judge a video until the actual clinic.

The new applicants must have their open book tests completed and ready to be turned to NCHA and graded prior to the video judging, they will need to score an 80% on their written test and 75% on their three videos judging test, those that won't score at least 80% in the open book test, won't be allowed to take the video judging test.

The written test is an open book test and will be consigned be sent to the new applicants by email after their specific request at nchaofitaly@gmail.com and emailed to NCHA on demand along with the NCHA judges application form before the seminar starts.

The European applicants are not required to have the earnings, or references that are required to U.S judges, however they must be members in good standing for a period of three years, the score on their applicant test will determine their rating (A to AAAA). A score of 75 or higher out of 100 will pass. An applicant score of 75-80 will earn a 2-A rating, a score of 81-95 will earn a 3-A rating and 95 and higher will earn a 4-A rating.
